Big Majority in U.S. See German Government, Not People, As Chief Enemy

By GEORGE GALLUP
Director, American Institute of Public Opinion

PRINCETON, N. J., June 13—When Under Secretary of State Sumner Welles declared that no element in any enemy nation should be forced to suffer after the war for the crimes of its leaders, he was expressing a viewpoint widely held by the American people.

The overwhelming majority of Americans believe that the German leaders, and not the German people, are the chief enemy.

That fact, of interest to all planners of peace, is shown in personal interviews with a cross-section of the population in all 48 states. The people were asked this question:

"In the war with Germany do you feel that our chief enemy is the German people as a whole, or the German government?"

Results are:

German people	6%
German government	79
No opinion	15

Casualties of war and possible

bombing of American coastal cities may, of courses, change this attitude, as the English attitude on the same question was changed during the first year of the war.

British View

"In England, when the war began in 1939 only 6 per cent blamed the German people, according to a poll by the British Institute of Public Opinion. But after the fall of France in 1940 and the persistent Nazi bombings of London and other British cities, there came a sharp change in the British viewpoint.

By the end of 1940, half of British voters were calling the German people their chief enemy. The trend is shown below:

BRITISH POLL

	People	Govt.	Undecided
Sept. 1939	6%	91%	3%
Aug. 1940	41	56	3
Nov. 1940	50	48	2

Patrolman Sought On Charge of Assault

By The Associated Press

LOGAN, O., June 12 — Authorities today sought State Highway Patrolman R. A. Morris of Lancaster on a warrant charging assault and battery of Weaver Henderson of Miami, Fla., brother of Common Pleas Judge Phil A. Henderson of Logan. Morris also was sued for $10,000 damages by Weaver Henderson in common pleas court.

Weaver Henderson on Thursday pleaded innocent before Mayor W. Denzil Weltner to a charge of abusing and resisting an officer filed by Morris. Henderson was released on $500 bond pending grand jury action. Morris was to have appeared before Justice of Peace S. B. Whitehair last night to answer the assault charge, but failed to show up.

The arrest of Weaver Henderson and what he described as his beating by Morris occurred Wednesday night when the patrolman stopped an automobile driven by Judge Henderson near Enterprise.

Nelson Asks Return of Excess War Profits

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, June 13 — Donald Nelson has appealed to manufacturers to give back to the treasury any excessive profits on war contracts.

In a broadcast address last night the war production board chairman coupled the plea with a warning that the government would catch up eventually with those who took more profits than were reasonable.

He also told farmers, workmen and consumers that all must get in step with the administration's anti-inflation program, and described the bootlegging of gasoline and tires or the hoarding of groceries as "close to treason."

LOST CARRIERS HIT JAPS HARD

At Least Six of Enemy's Aircraft Vessels Sent Down by U. S.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, June 13—The Midway and Coral sea battles have cost Japan probably half of her best aircraft carriers and thus have broken the spearhead of her air-sea striking power, informed naval sources estimated today.

And because of the importance of the air arm, the Japanese are regarded as having gambled away in the two engagements the chance of major offensive action on the American side of the Pacific, even though they still have several fast carriers which could operate with the weakened high sea fleet.

They have lost at least six of the ten or more fully effective fleet carriers with which they started the Pacific war, and still others have been put out of action temporarily by bomb and torpedo damage. This is on the basis of official reports of the Coral sea battle and word from Midway pilots that three and possibly four Japanese carriers were sunk in that action.

Japan probably had more carriers than those listed in naval manuals. But by the best available listings, she started the war with these: Skokaku (or Shokaku) and Zifkaku, the newest listed designs, each of 14,000 tons, 30 knot speed and 45 planes; Soryu, Koryu and Koryu, 10,050 tons, 30 knots and 40 planes; Ryuzyo, 7,100 tons, 25 knots, 15 planes; Akagi, 28,800 tons, 28 knots, 50 planes; Kaga, 26,900 tons, 23 knots, 60 planes; Hosyu, 7,470 tons, 25 knots, 26 planes; and the Ryukaku, a new carrier either of 14,000 or 20,000 tons. She also had several conversion liners as carriers, but these are not classed as fleet vessels.

Students in Parade To Assemble at 3:15 P. M.

A special request was made today by school officials of the city and county that pupils who are going to march in the Allied Victory parade be at their division formation point on Olney avenue by 3:15 Sunday afternoon. The education division, No. 3, will form at the rear of Division 2.

Japan's Sea Ventures Cost Heavy Price

PEARL HARBOR, T. H., June 13—Japan's attempt to invade Midway island, a thrust broken by the fierce and skillful defense of fighting Americans, cost her a tremendous price—three and possibly four aircraft carriers, hundreds of planes and probably more than 10,000 men.

These figures are unofficial but based on first-hand reports of the battle.

Admiral Chester W. Nimitz' communiques have listed two carriers, possibly three, destroyed, three battleships and eight to 11 other warships damaged. But the commander-in-chief of the Pacific fleet pointed out that the reports were not all in.

Boy Is Convicted of Shooting Sister

PITTSBURGH, June 13—A 14-year-old boy accused of fatally shooting his sister, 8, because she "nagged him" awaited sentence today on a charge of voluntary manslaughter.

Vincent James Rocco, described by his counsel as "outstanding in school, church and Boy Scouting," sobbed as a jury brought in its verdict last night with a recommendation of extreme leniency."

The prosecution charged the boy shot Marie Rocco as she slept in their home last March 15 while their parents attended a wake.

Judge J. Frank Graff said he would pass sentence Tuesday.

KEEP IT FLYING
KEEP ON BUYING
War Savings Bonds and Stamps

Too many of us have long taken our flag too much for granted! These are times in which its true significance and all the freedom, spirit, faith and hope for mankind it symbolizes must stand clear in our minds, as reaffirmation of all that we are fighting for: and of the worthwhileness of our fighting to the last fibre of our being.

Keep it flying! Brave red, gallant blue, unsullied white! Keep it flying—the flag of America's frontiers; the flag of 165 years of pioneers in the name of liberty; the flag of America—for freedom—forever!

Keep it flying! There's only one way! And that is by keeping on buying the War Savings Bonds and Stamps which can supply the funds which can supply our fighting men with every piece of equipment and every item of apparel they need—fast—in order to win this war!

WESLEY BRUMBAUGH STRICKEN IN FLORIDA

Retired Erie Conductor Dies in St. Petersburg.

Wesley Sylvester Brumbaugh, 86, of 371 East Center street, retired Erie railroad passenger conductor, died Tuesday afternoon in his summer home at St. Petersburg, Fla. He had been in failing health about a year following a stroke.

The body will be brought to Marion Monday morning and will be taken to the Hood-Kinsinger funeral home on West Center street for services some time Tuesday.

The widow will be accompanied by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Earl Seaton of 731 East Center street, who was called to St. Petersburg two weeks ago because of Mr. Brumbaugh's illness.

Through cards to Marion friends, Mr. and Mrs. Brumbaugh said on March 29 they planned to participate in the annual parade of the Shriners' Temple in that city, but the parade was postponed until be resumed on April 29, 1933.

He widow was Mrs. Emma Diday before their marriage. She and her son by a former marriage, Earl Seaton, survive.

INDICTED IN SLAYING

ALL'S WELL THAT ENDS WELL IN THEFT MIXUP

Theft of Auto and $130 Turns Out to be Misunderstanding.

A report of a stolen automobile and $130 in cash, reported happily recovered when two women who had been cited at city police headquarters were released.

Here is what happened according to a report made to police:

A man who is a Iron Marion reported his auto, a blue sedan missing from his home but said that he later found it parked on West Church street in possession of two girls.

The man later reported that the housekeeper, who had an appointment at a beauty parlor, had kept the car later than he had thought she would. He told police he found the money in another part of his house, where his housekeeper had hidden it.

HIKE IN PHONE WAR TAX GIVEN APPROVAL

WASHINGTON, June 13—An increase of at least 50 per cent in tax on telephone and telegraph charges of all kinds has been approved by the house ways and means committee nearing the end of consideration of excise taxes estimated to produce $500,000,000.

The members decided tentatively to raise from the present 10 per cent to 15 per cent the flat tax on telegrams, to change the 6 per cent tax on local telephone service to 10 per cent and to substitute a 20 per cent tax on telephone toll service for the scale which now begins at 5 cents on a charge between 25 and 50 cents.

These changes, it is estimated, would produce $65,600,000 in additional revenue.

The committee also revised the life insurance tax exemption provisions to produce $40,000,000 and raised the tax on photographic equipment from 10 per cent to 25 per cent to raise still another $10,800,000.

Oil in Caucasus Still Hitler's Goal in Russian Drive

By DEWITT MacKENZIE
Wide World War Analyst

The fierce Hitlerian offensives being waged in the Kharkov sector of the Ukraine and against the great Red naval base of Sevastopol in the Crimea are logical forerunners of another all-out Nazi drive to force the stubborn gateway to the Caucasus with its wealth of oil and other resources.

These two operations, while widely separated, are natural companion pieces in the German strategy of crashing into this land of plenty and are likely to develop into one of the decisive battles of the war if they go well for the invaders in this initial stage. Awaiting the outcome of these drives are great armies of fresh Nazi troops, backed by a formidable array of new equipment and a huge air fleet.

Herr Hitler's boasted intuition must be making him uneasy, what with the official talk of a new allied front against him in western Europe and the unprecedented bombing raids being staged by the British royal air force. Old man time has the fuehrer by the neck.

The renewed onslaught against Kharkov by Nazi Marshal Fedor Von Bock probably is calculated to eliminate two great salients which Red Marshal Timoshenko drove into the German line south of that city. Should it succeed, the Hitlerites would be in position to resume their push for Rostov on Don—the pivot on which the gateway to the Caucasus turns.

But if the crafty Timoshenko can hold his lines, he may stymie Hitler's grand offensive as the marshal did once before this spring.

Down on the Crimea the situation before long-besieged Sevastopol is reported from Moscow as "extremely tense." The Germans are attacking with some 150,000 troops and heavy air forces. This naval base is the last Red bastion in the Crimea and Hitler needs it to enable him to pass troops through the Crimea and across the narrow Kerch strait to the Caucasus mainland. A wholly unconfirmed report from Vichy, France, yesterday said Nazi soldiers already had landed on the mainland, thereby getting a toehold in this back door to the Caucasus.

A look at the map will show how Hitler is trying to coordinate the Kharkov and Caucasus operations. Should he be successful in both places he might be able to develop a pincers movement on Rostov. With this pivot city in his hands he would try to drive straight eastward to Astrakhan and thence down the Caspian sea coast to the oil city of Baku. At the same time would send another column down the western Caucasus to the other oil port of Batum.

And if Hitler ever should get an army down through the Caucasus to the Persian border, he presumably would find himself facing Anglo-American forces which have been anxiously waiting for a chance to get at him.

Notice to Civilian Defense Units

William R. Marun, Marion county civilian defense coordinator, said today all those who have been assigned to civilian defense units in the Flag day parade, should meet at 3:15 Sunday afternoon on Orchard street from Holmes place south.

Each unit, he said, should have a leader who will be under the direction of E. M. Breithaupt, chief of civilian defense. Mr. Martin also urged defense unit members to come prepared with their arm bands or a facsimile band made with a handkerchief folded to four inches.

OTHER CITIES PLAN FLAG DAY PROGRAMS

At least three communities near Marion are celebrating Flag day tomorrow. Parades will be held at Marysville and Bucyrus and four Galion organizations will be represented in the Bucyrus celebration.

Co. G, Ohio State Guard, which will participate later in the Marion Allied victory parade, will take part in the Marysville parade to be held at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Nine bands and more than 50 units including fraternal and patriotic organizations and civic groups are scheduled to be entered in the parade at Bucyrus, which will start at 2:30 p. m.

The ceremonies are being sponsored by the Bucyrus Elks lodge and the principal speaker for the program, which will be held at the athletic field, will be Carl Smith of Kenton, chairman of the Ohio civic service commission. Military drill by several platoons of the 753rd Engineers battalion located in Bucyrus and the local medical detachment of the Ohio State guard in addition to the dedication of a new flag pole, donated to the athletic field by the Bucyrus Elks, will complete the program.

Taking part in this parade will be the following organizations from Galion, the American Legion, the American Legion Drum and Bugle corps, the Galion Eagles, the Galion Eagles' band, the Galion Moose lodge, and the Galion Elks.

State Patrol, Police Make Two Arrests

J. J. Jeffrey, 21, of 900½ Bennett street was arrested by city police at 3 a. m. today and charged with operating a car without a driver's license on West Center street. He was held at city prison prior to appearance in municipal court.

Donald W. Ewalt, 23, of Columbus was arrested by state highway patrolmen last night on route 23 and later accused of passing another car on a curve. He posted $15 bond for his appearance before Municipal Judge Hazen Monday at 10 a. m.

Small Field Enters State Primary Races

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., June 13—The smallest field of candidates in more than a decade will vie for nominations to state offices in the August primary.

Only 29 candidates of both political parties had filed for eight posts when the deadline was reached yesterday. This compared with 74 two years ago.

One factor which limited the field, observers felt, was the war.

Gov. Bricker will have opposition in a gubernatorial primary for the first time. The opponent is Herbert Hoover of Akron, who has been an unsuccessful candidate for nomination to various state offices.

Five Democrats seek the gubernatorial nomination. They are Walter F. Heer of Columbus; former state treasuer Clarence H. Knisley of Bainbridge; Frank A. Dye of Columbus, State Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson of Barberton and former Congressman John McSweeney of Wooster.

One Democrat and four Republican incumbents are unopposed they are Secretary of State John E. Sweeney (D) and Lieut. Gov. Paul M. Herbert, State Treasurer Don H. Ebright, Atty. Gen. Thomas J. Herbert and Supreme Court Judge Edward C. Turner.

27 KNOWN DEAD IN OKLAHOMA STORM

By The Associated Press

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 13—Storm-swept Oklahoma City counted its known dead at 27 and injured at 100 today after two tornadoes slashed a 12-block residential area at the city's southwest edge.

Scores were reported missing and approximately 60 buildings were demolished.

Many inhabitants of the devastated area entered storm cellars when the first tornado struck last night and escaped the force of the second which came 10 minutes later.

DEFENSE . . . a word that today is echoed on every lip. Defense . . . a fact that means cooperation of each and every one toward an end which is vital to all. Today when we think of War Stamps and Bonds, it must be in a broad, national sense . . . not in a narrow, individual way. So remember when you buy War Bonds and Stamps you not only save for yourself, you help Uncle Sam, too!

UNITED NATIONS DAY JUNE - 14
MORE IN DEDICATION than in memory, for this year is fraught with double meaning . . . and Flag Day is a significant one both as we look back and gaze into the future. A gigantic job stands before us . . . but we must pause to honor those who are now giving their all to preserve our freedom. Too, we must push on to the labors ahead. America can be counted on to do that which is right.

Trio of Stars in Cast of "Tortilla Flat" at Palace

Film Version of Steinbeck Novel To Be Shown Three Days; "Mr. Bug Goes To Town" Booked.

Brought to life in a fascinating setting, John Steinbeck's best-seller novel "Tortilla Flat," starring Spencer Tracy, Hedy Lamarr and John Garfield, opens at the Palace theater tomorrow to be featured through Tuesday.

Accurately recreated to the last detail, the set includes a street two blocks long. Off in the distance is the sweeping curve of picturesque Monterey bay. Guitar-playing paisanos, children, dogs, goats and hens all contribute to the authenticity of the setting's atmosphere.

Spencer Tracy is the philosophical Pilon, in his most colorful characterization. Hoddy Lamarr becomes the fiery Dolores, pigtailed beauty of the settlement, who is wooed and won by John Garfield, portraying the lazy, lovable Danny.

Frank Morgan brings his humor to the role of the bearded 'Pirate' something of a miser outwardly, but at heart a generous and magnificent man.

A melodrama, "Fingers at the Window," featuring Laraine Day and Lew Ayres, will be on the screen Wednesday. There also will be a community sing.

Mr. Bug Goes to Town, which will show at the Palace Thursday through Saturday, is the tale of a community of insects that live on a patch of weedy land just 45 inches from Broadway surrounded by steel and concrete skyscrapers. Hoppy the grasshopper hero, returns to Bugville to find his Honey Bee sweetheart pursued by the pompous villain, C. Bagley Beetle, and his fellow-citizens threatened with extinction by the impending construction of a new sky-scraper on their homeland.

In "Butch Minds the Baby," also playing Thursday through Saturday, Darron Runyon brings a 13-months-old baby into the life of a hardened professional safe cracker, enacted by Brod Crawford. The association of "Butch" and his hard-boiled mob of friends with the baby results in many dramatic situations.

The baby in the picture is Harold Michael Barnett, who is hailed by Director Albert S. Rogell as "a baby in a million." Also featured are Virginia Bruce, Dick Foran, Porter Hall and Sheron Howard.

Taylor Stars in New Role

Romantic Actor Cast for First Time as Villain in Movie at Marion.

"Johnny Eager," in which Robert Taylor plays his first villainous role, will be brought back to the Marion on the bill for the midnight show tonight and Sunday and Monday. Lana Turner is his co-star. Taylor plays a flinty-eyed killer with but one redeeming quality, his realization that in Miss Turner he has met the love of his life, a love for which he lays down his life. Edward Arnold portrays Miss Turner's father and Van Heflin plays a dissolute gangster attorney. The other film on the double bill will be "Marry the Boss's Daughter," a comedy with Bruce Edwards and Brenda Joyce featured. George Barber plays Miss Joyce's tycoon father with whom Joyce manages to get a job.

The Tuesday-Wednesday top film will be "Brigham Young," starring Tyrone Power and with Dean Jagger in the title role. Leading feminine roles are taken by Linda Darnell, Mary Astor, Jean Rogers and Jane Darwell. John Carradine and Brian Donlevy play featured roles. The story is of the Mormon trek westward and the founding of Salt Lake City. Scenes include the crossing of the Mississippi in the dead of winter, the massacre at Nauvoo, Ill., and the plague of crickets during the first year at Salt Lake.

Action which took place in Hong Kong the week before the city was captured by the Japanese, and the part the British and Americans took to combat the activities of Axis spies and fifth columnists is woven into the plot of "Escape from Hong Kong," which will be shown three days, starting Thursday, on a double bill with a Charles Starrett action drama, "Lawless Plainsmen." Featured in the Hong Kong story are Leo Carrillo, Marjorie Lord, Don Terry, Frank Puglia and Andy Devine.

Gen. Tinker Lost in Midway Battle

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, June 12—The war department reported today that Major General Clarence L. Tinker, commander of the Hawaiian air force, was missing after the battle of Midway.

Tinker left Midway June 7 leading a flight of his army bombers to attack the Japanese fleet.

His plane when last seen by men aboard other aircraft in the same formation was descending rapidly toward the sea, the war department said

IN JAP SPY STORY ON OHIO SCREEN

Preston Foster and Lynn Bari, above, are interested in the secret activities of the Japanese spy ring in Shanghai in "Secret Agent of Japan," now at the Ohio through Monday.

War Drama On Ohio Bill

Trickery of Jap Agents Used as Basis of Theme for Movie.

"Secret Agent of Japan," the timely film on the Ohio screen now and through Monday, is a story of undercover activities of Japanese agents just before the attack on Pearl Harbor.

Featuring Preston Foster and Lynn Bari, the picture takes Shanghai for its locale and portrays the activities of secret agents trying to beat their enemies to the punch. Foster plays the role of an American cafe owner who cooperates with Lynn in trying to gain information which will prove vital to the British and American forces.

Featured in the cast are Noel Madison, Sen Yung, Janis Carter and Steve Geray.

Dana Nolan is seen again as Michael Shayne, Private Detective, in "Blue, White and Perfect," booked for Tuesday-Wednesday and Thursday as a double bill with Jordan "John" Brough's latest and best action drama, "Sundown Jim."

Nolan becomes involved in sabotage and murder. He presents himself to be a riveter in an aircraft factory and later to be a southern colonel in his efforts to track down foreign agents using dress buttons to smuggle diamonds out of the country. Ruth Mary Beth Hughes has the leading feminine role.

"Sundown Jim" presents Kimbrough, former Texas A and M football star, in the role of a young marshal appointed to quell lawlessness in an Oklahoma territory township. Feminine leads are played by Virginia Gilmore and Arleen Whelan.

Humphrey Bogart, after a series of pictures in which he was on the side of law and order, jumps the traces in "The Big Shot," his newest starring picture booked for four days starting next Friday.

'Sierra Sue' To Be on Double Feature Bill with Comedy

A western comedy and a western drama have been booked for Sunday and Monday by the State.

Hopalong Cassidy in "Law of the Tropics" with George Reed and Mary Ware, and Gene Autry in "Sierra Sue" will be shown.

Smiley Burnette are featured in "Sierra Sue."

Jeffrey Lynn and Constance Bennett have featured roles in "Law of the Tropics" Tuesday and Wednesday. "One Million B. C." with John Hubbard and Carole Landis, is also scheduled for the same days.

Thursday through Saturday "Puddin' Head," featuring Judy Canova and Frances Langford, and "Bill the Kid's Roundup" with Buster Crabbe and Al St. John, will be shown.

Tribe Drops 5-4 Decision to A's; Weather Halts Major League Pla

Dodgers, Inactive Since Last Sunday, Hope To Play Reds Tonight.

By The Associated Press

The visitors turned and swept the Indians in a two-game series and split a four-game series from the Philadelphia Athletics.

The lowly A's, who had not beaten the Tribe this season did it last night, 5 to 4, behind the four-hit pitching of Dick Fowler and Russ Christopher. Russ also relieved five batters in the last seven innings.

Al Milnar, as has been his habit this season, was unable to put his usual stuff on the ball, and was relieved by Tom Ferrick in the third frame before he retired a batter. Ferrick allowed one more run to score to give Philadelphia a total of three for the inning. The "A's" counted what proved to be the winning tally in the fifth, when Siebert tripled and came home on Lou Blair's single.

The Indians got an unearned run in the first on two successive fumbles by Knickerbocker. In the sixth Fabian Gaffke, batting for Ferrick, opened with a single. Hockett and Boudreau followed with singles that scored Gaffke, but after Jeff Heath walked, hard-hitting Les Fleming went out on an infield roller, Hockett scoring. A wild pitch allowed Boudreau to come home with the third run.

Call it a military secret if you like, but that stuff causing all the grief for the major leagues in general and the Brooklyn Dodgers in particular isn't ginger ale.

The Dodgers have been idle so long they may adopt hip-boots and umbrellas as standard equipment. Seven games were scheduled in the majors yesterday but only five of them were started and two of these never got far enough to get into the records.

Fourth Game Postponed

The Dodgers, who haven't played a league foe since last Sunday, bumped into their fourth straight postponement at Cincinnati. They will try again with the Reds tonight.

The second-place Cardinals returned to action last night and nosed out the Philadelphia Phils, 2-1. That chopped the distance between them and the league-leading Dodgers to six and a half games.

The Chicago Cubs protected their sixth place berth from Boston, handing the Braves their tenth straight setback, 3-2, in the only afternoon contest.

A night game at Pittsburgh between the Pirates and New York Giants was halted after three and a half innings with the Giants leading, 7-4.

The New York Yankees' series-opener with the St. Louis Browns was postponed and the Yankees held on to the nine and a half inning end.

When the White Sox game was rained out in the sixth and the Chicago White Sox game called off last night after one inning with no score, the teams promptly moved today's starting time back to 4 P. M.

The Boston Red Sox and Detroit Tigers were not scheduled yesterday.

MARION, FINDLAY TO PLAY 2 OHIO STATE GAMES HERE SUNDAY

Joe Roseberry and King Bacon Are Probable Mound Choices.

Marion's Ohio State semi-pro Hawks are slated to entertain Findlay in a double-header Sunday at 1:30 p. m. at Lincoln park.

Wednesday Marion outscored Findlay, 6-4, in a game which ended in dispute. Whether or not the game will be registered as a Marion victory awaits the decision of League President Charles LeCrone of Tiffin.

Umpire E. E. Swisher of Findlay called the game in the ninth inning with Findlay at bat, two men out, one man on second by virtue of a base on balls issued by Joe Roseberry and two strikes on the fourth batter.

Prexy LeCrone said he would make a thorough investigation and, if necessary, reprimand Umpire Swisher for his apparent one-sided stand. Swisher, who is the Findlay club's regular umpire, will be behind the plate in tomorrow's pair of games at Lincoln park.

Manager Ray Roseberry will start Joe Roseberry in the opener Sunday and will pitch King Bacon, the Hawks', second leading flinger, in the nightcap.

Jack Dilleon of near Harpster, a member of the Miami university baseball team, has been added to the Hawks' roster, replacing veteran Johnny Paulus, who will leave soon to enter the U. S. coast guard.

Manager Roseberry is still attempting to obtain additional pitchers. Several double-header programs will undoubtedly be arranged on the Hawks' schedule around mid-season. He has invited all Marion youths desiring to play with the Hawks to contact him at his home at 272 Patterson street. Men employed at the Scioto Ordnance Plant with previous baseball experience are also invited to try out.

POETRY MOVED THOSE LUGS

AUSTIN, Tex.—Remember how the Texas Longhorns upset the great undefeated Texas A&M football team last Thanksgiving day, conquering them 28-0 after a scoreless first half? Yanks Master of Famous Fork Ball Eyes Major League Shutout Mark

Wide World Features

NEW YORK — Don't be surprised if major league pitchers soon begin juggling iron balls before their games.

Tiny Bonham does it and Tiny has been so successful this season that other hurlers are liable to follow suit. Tiny, the New York Yankees young and big flinger, tops major league hurlers. He won his first seven games and also set the pace in shutouts, with four.

The 28-year-old right-hander is the control king of the majors for he gave only five walks in six games. In that stretch rivals scored six runs, two of them unearned. He's averaged about three strike-outs a game.

Tiny attributes his control to that custom of gripping and juggling a three-pound iron ball before taking the mound. After holding this heavy ball tightly and tossing it around, Bonham finds that the baseball feels light as a pea in his hand. It sort of gives him confidence that he can place it just where he wants to. And that helps when you're trying to nick the corners of the plate without giving the batter a real piece of the ball to hit.

Third Year With Yanks

This is Tiny's third season with the Yanks. He came up from the Kansas City farm during the 1940 season and was something of a sensation in winning nine and losing three in the closing months. Last year he hurt his back at the St. Petersburg spring training camp and was unable to pitch until June.

This is also the first season he's had much success in the early months, for his minor league record shows him as a late starter. He started in 1935 with Oakland and later played with Akron, Binghampton and Newark.

Tiny pitched and won the clinching game with the Dodgers in last October's world series, allowing but four hits.

His best pitch is a fork ball. He has excellent control of this freak delivery, which most hurlers find hard to control. He's fast and he has accuracy. If he had a good curve he'd be almost unbeatable.

May Break Record

With his good start, Bonham has an excellent chance of leading American league pitchers this year. And, with four shutouts already he may closely approach, or better, Jack Coombs' American league record of 13.

In his best game to date, a 1-0 shutout of the White Sox, Tiny gave up only three hits, two of them bunts, and only one pass (his first in 18 innings) and only four balls were hit beyond the infield.

Ernie Bonham . . . hands out the goose-eggs.

RED BIRDS, MILLERS SPLIT DOUBLE BILL

Breechen Hurls 6-Hit Ball as Flock Wins, 6-1.

By The Associated Press

Manager Gabby Hartnett's Indianapolis Indians, winners of 12 of their last 17 starts are knocking at the door of the first division in the American association.

The Indians won victories 11 and 12 last night in the drive that has carried them out of the last place berth they held down on Memorial day. They held league-leading Kansas City scoreless for 19 innings in taking both ends of a double-header, 1-0 and 2-1. The first tilt went 11 innings.

The Indians now are tied for fourth place with Louisville, which split a double bill with Milwaukee yesterday. Louisville captured the afternoon opener 3 to 2. Milwaukee won the nightcap, 4 to 2.

Cellar-dwelling St. Paul traded positions with seventh-place Toledo by defeating the Mud Hens twice, 2 to 1 and 10 to 7. Minneapolis and Columbus split a twin bill. The Millers won the opener 10 to 1. Harry Breechen pitched Columbus to a six-hit 6 to 1 verdict in the afternoon.

Famed Ohio Gridder To Enter Ohio State

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, June 13 — "Touchdown Tommy" Peilegs, Berea High school quarterback whose services have been sought by 42 colleges or universities, decided today to enroll at Ohio State university.

The 18-year-old halfback, rated Ohio's best scholastic passer in a decade, made his choice after narrowing the field down to Ohio State, Notre Dame and his home town Baldwin-Wallace college.

Last season Phillips hurled 21 touchdown passes in eight games, personally carried the ball across the pay stripe seven times and placekicked 14 extra points.

Indianapolis Star Tops A. A. Batting Averages with .335

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, June 13 — If Joe Bestudik, Indianapolis' third baseman, is astounded at finding himself all alone atop the American association batting averages this week, it's little wonder. His opposition has folded like tissue-paper kites in a typhoon.

While he raised his own mark 10 points to .355 in the seven days up to Thursday's games, his former contenders for batting honors suffered decided slumps.

George Lacy of Louisville, last week's leader, plummeted from .359 to .315. Andy Gilbert, of Louisville, No. 2 man a week ago, fell from .355 to .321. Frank Drews of St. Paul, tied seven days back with Bestudik at .345, good enough for third, nosedived clear down to .296 as he made only six hits in 39 times at bat.

The thoroughly reshuffled ten ten thus was composed of Bestudik, .355; Ed Stanky of Milwaukee, .330; Wayne Blackburn of Indianapolis, .325; Bill Skelley of Indianapolis, .323; Gilbert and Eric Tipton of Kansas City, tied at .321; Joe Vosmik of Minneapolis, .319; Jim Grant of St. Paul and Don Lang of Kansas City, tied at .317, and Lacy, .315.

Bestudik also set the pace with the most hits, 70, and the most triples, 7. Stanky's 18 doubles led in that department. Harvey Walker of Minneapolis was in front in home runs with 12.

Johnny McCarthy of Indianapolis had the most runs batted in, 45, and George Myatt of Columbus led in stolen bases with 13.

Pitcher Milt Haefner of Minneapolis rated highest in total wins with eight, against four defeats.

Bears Set Opener

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO—An August 22 football opener for the Chicago Bears, the professional champs, was announced by Skipper George Halas.

Paying their own expenses, the Bears will leave their camp at Delafield, Wis., on that date to meet the Camp Grant, Ill., eleven in General Bell bowl on the army reservation, for the benefit of the army emergency relief fund. Arrangements will be made to seat 20,000. Soldiers will be admitted free.

SEPT. 12 GRID GAME TO HELP CHARITIES

Pro Football Giants To Meet Army's Best.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, June 13 — Two charities—the army emergency relief and the Herald-Tribune Fresh Air fund—will share the proceeds of the Sept. 12 football game in which the New York Giants of the National Pro league will oppose the best the U. S. army has to offer.

Final arrangements were completed today, with the New York Baseball Giants and the Chicago Cubs agreeing to shift their National league from the Polo Grounds on that date to give the gridiron boys a clear field.

In the six previous fresh air fund games, the Giants have tangled with a squad of eastern college all-stars.

Army officials in Washington this week announced plans for two all-star football teams and six-week schedules for each. The team to oppose the Giants here will comprise the best of these two army squads.

BETTINA'S RECORD CLEAN

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, June 13 — Melio Bettina's new fistic victory record is still intact and now amounts to 12 straight. The Bescon, N. Y., southpaw heavyweight contender polished off Chicago's Altus Allen decisively in seven of the 10 rounds last night.

Allen took only one round; the other two were even. Bettina outweighed his foe by a scant 189 to 187.

FAST ON THE DRAW

FOSTER FIELD, Tex. — Uncle Sam was quicker on the draw than the major league baseball scouts when he plucked a promising diamond performer off the campus of Purdue university and placed him in the army air corps. BASS FISHING TO BEGIN JUNE 16

If Dad doesn't show up at the office on Tuesday, June 16, and Mother is late getting the wash on the line, think nothing of it. Charge it up to the opening of the inland bass fishing season which has become an unofficial Ohio holiday.

Well over 600,000 Ohioans possess fishing licenses and as many of them as can get a day will be on the lakes and along the streams for the opening day, Conservation Commissioner Don Waters predicted today.

Officially the fishing season opens on the stroke of midnight Monday. Every angler 18 years or older must have a license. Licenses cost 50 cents with a 10-cent fee for issuing.

Minimum legal length for bass is 10 inches and daily bag limit is six. The ban on black bass in the Lake Erie district will remain on until July 1.

Van Buren lake in Hancock county and Decker lake in Miami county will be opened by the conservation division for the first time June 16. Other lakes closed so far this year that will open on June 16 are Schoonover, Allen county, Twin lakes, Delaware county and the Massillon-Fulton Canal in Stark and Summit counties. Twin Lakes have been closed for twelve years.

These five bodies of water were stocked with breeder and fingerling fish and test nets indicate there should be good fishing for largemouth bass, bluegills, crappies and bullheads.

FISHING HINTS AND HELPS

Bluegill fishing continues to hold the spotlight in the angling world this week and limit catches are being taken at most of the state-owned and private lakes.

As a game fish, the bluegill is by far the best of all true sunfishes. It grows to a greater size than the others, the largest reaching a length of from 12 to 22 inches and weighing from a pound up to three pounds. Its flesh is firm, flaky and delicious.

It will take almost any kind of bait and for its size it is an exceedingly hard fighter. The bluegill takes the hook daintily, sucks the bait, and then goes about its business. Its plan of campaign consists in turning its broad side toward the fisherman. Thus it adds the resistance of the water to its dashes and tugs.

At Indian lake, best bluegill water is said to be in the bays near the east end, particularly about Long island, in Long pond and about Turkey Foot. Entrance to the best bluegill spots can be made from O'Connor's landing or from Bill Wren's place at the point of Long island.

Jackson lake in southern Ohio continues to provide plenty of fast sport with the bluegills that average a half pound each for the largest.

Scioto river above Columbus provides good bluegill fishing at certain spots particularly about the islands near Dublin. Good crappie water is that stretch of the river near the Girl's Industrial school.

Next to bluegill fishing, the season's best bet is the channel catfish which has been biting well at all the inland state lakes. Fresh shrimp, cut minnows and night crawlers are the best baits and should be shied on or near the bottom.

There have been large catches of crappies reported at Pymatuning lake on the Pennsylvania-Ohio border.

Trout fishing has dropped off in Ohio but a few anglers are still taking limit catches of fair size trout in the deeper holes near the highway bridges.

Springfield Racks Up 3rd Win Over Dayton

By The Associated Press

CANTON, O., June 13—Canton defeated Dayton 3 to 2 in an 11-inning Mid-Atlantic league game last night, chalking up the deciding tally on a walk, a sacrifice and a single.

Erie, pressing hard to overtake first-place Charleston, scored a 4 to 2 victory and moved to within three and one-half games of the Senators. The game was called at the end of the seventh because of weather and the nightcap of a scheduled double-header was postponed.

Springfield made it three straight over Zanesville, winning 3-2.

DEMPSEY COMMISSIONED LIEUTENANT

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, June 13—Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight boxing champion, was sworn in today as a lieutenant, junior grade, in the U. S. coast guard.

Dempsey, who will be placed in charge of the boat service personal training program at the Manhattan Beach station on Long Island, was sworn in by Capt. R. W. Dempwolf, district Coast Guard officer of the third naval district.

The ex-champion said he was giving up all his civilian activities, including management of his broadway restaurant and radio program, and would report for duty next week after appearing in a MacArthur parade in Baltimore this afternoon and a USO show at Ogden, Utah, tomorrow.

Niemi, Petrich 1-A in Draft. Army Has Tire Troubles. Letter to Ed. Reveals.

By LOREN W. TIBBALS
Marion Star Sports Editor

Chances of a complete Harding High school athletic program for next school year slipped another notch today with the announcement by Selective Service Board 2 of the reclassification to 1-A of George Niemi, head track coach and assistant football coach at Harding, and Joe Petrich, head coach at Edison Junior High school.

Both men previously had been classified 3-A, vital to civilian activity.

Their reclassification makes them subject to immediate call. Induction into the service follows physical examinations by army doctors in Columbus.

Niemi's induction would break the successful Harding coaching team of Bill Williams and himself. These men, aided by Petrich and coaches of the other junior high teams as well as Howard Hoffman, reserve coach, have given Harding a share of the last three North Central Ohio conference grid titles.

In 1939, the second year of the Williams-Niemi regime, the Presidents waded to their first N. C. O. crown in 11 years. That same year marked the first time a Marion football team ever went undefeated. A 6-6 tie with a powerful Piqua combination was the blur on an otherwise perfect record.

The following year, Harding finished in a dead heat with Shelby and Bucyrus. The Bucyrus Redmen upset the locals for the only defeat on the 1940 Harding schedule.

Eclipsing all previous marks, the Harding crew breezed through an eight-game schedule, holding every opponent scoreless. A pair of scoreless ties with Mt. Vernon and Lima Central were the only flaws in the record. Harding was the only Class A team in Ohio to claim an unscored-on record last season.

What is in store for the football Presidents this fall is strictly a guess-work proposition. On the basis of available talent, prospects are far from rosy. The rationing, possible extension of national gasoline rationing, not to mention other rationing schedules which are considered forthcoming, may result in the final abolishment of high school sports for the duration.

And, even more important, Coaches Niemi and Petrich probably won't be the last men to be taken from the coaching lines in Marion through the national selective service program.

ARMY TIRE TROUBLE

High school, college and professional athletic groups aren't the only groups having tire rationing trouble. Read the following letter to this corner which warrants being made public to show that athletics are in for plenty of trouble in the future.

In view of the fact that government transportation is not authorized for the Post baseball team, it will be impossible to play in Marion June 19 as previously arranged.

To date officers at the post have used their own cars for transportation, but this can't go on in view of the tire situation.

Trusting that you understand these circumstances, I remain very truly yours,

Charles St. J. Chubb,
Captain, Infantry,
Public Relations Officer
Camp Perry, Ohio

The above is in answer to a letter in regards a game between the Marion Hawks and the Camp Perry service team. Even the army, that vast unit of control, must reduce its activities to conform with the times.

SOUTHERN CAL AFTER 8TH N. C. A. A. TITLE

Bob Wright Winner of Hurdle Heats; Penn Star Out.

By The Associated Press

LINCOLN, Neb., June 13 — Southern California was well on the way to its eighth straight NCAA track title today as the meet moved into the finals.

The favorites, with the notable exception of Penn State's great ebony sprinter, Barney Ewell, came through intact last night in the preliminaries which saw the Trojans qualifying 16 men for the finals tonight.

Ewell's hopes for three straight 100 and 220 championships were blasted when he dropped out of the meet with a pulled leg tendon. Competing in the national collegiate broad jump for the first time, he pulled the tendon on his second jump.

Bob Wright of Ohio State won both his hurdle heats, the highs in 14.6 and the lows in 24.1.

Snatches of Sports

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.

NEW YORK, June 13—The army has just put out an order that soldiers on furlough no longer can accept money for athletic performances. Aimed at keeping army ball players out of benefit games where the promoters benefitted the most, the rule also runs any chance Corp. Joe Louis might have had of defending his heavyweight title for dough this summer. Washington has averaged 9,000 attendance for six baseball games that would have drawn about 2,500 by airplane. And Griff probably is wondering why he was right for so long.

Wool Market Still Uncertain of Future

By The Associated Press

BOSTON, June 13—The Commercial Bulletin said today:

"While some of the doubts incident to recent government regulations have been clarified, the wool trade is not yet fully reassured as to their future course of action and so trading has languished again this week.

"Only some special items, which fitted into the manufacturing program immediately have been moved, including some choice fine Ohio Delaines."

The paper published these Ohio quotations:

Domestic fleeces—Delaine unwashed 45-48, ½ blood combing 45-47, ¾ blood combing 50-51, ¼ blood combing 50-51.

RUBBER

ne ... p and but persons w... ing to consolidate their scrap rubber may do so. The petroleum companies will collect the tires from filling stations. The government will repay them for the cost of the scrap rubber, which will be handled through the Rubber Reserve Corp., a newly formed government unit. Any margin between what is paid citizens for the scrap and what the petroleum companies receive for it will be donated to the USO, the Red Cross, Army Relief and Navy Relief.

In announcing the campaign President Roosevelt said:

"Once the rubber is in, we will know what our supplies of used rubber are and we will make our plans accordingly. One thing you can be sure of—we are going to see to it that there is enough rubber to build the planes to bomb Tokyo and Berlin—enough rubber to build the tanks to crush the enemy wherever we may find him—enough rubber to win this war."

Mr. Roosevelt appealed to motorists everywhere to cut down on pleasure driving and reduce both automobile speed and mileage. He discloses that the army and navy have been forced to cut their use of rubber by 25 per cent, largely by the use of ... ing trucks which slow down transport.

U. S. Torpedoes Finally Send Lexington Down

By The Associated Press

SAN DIEGO, Calif., June 13—The U. S. aircraft carrier Lexington was sunk by American torpedoes to prevent greater loss of life after fire and internal explosions started by a Japanese attack had raged for seven and a half hours, the commander of an American dive-bomber squadron said today.

tion to choose our angle of attack off the carrier's bow.

"We shipped between several destroyers and cruisers, turned sharply and headed toward the carrier. We had to get down lower to release the torpedoes so we headed closer to the water.

"We could actually hear twenty millimeter shells leaving the Zeros' guns—that's how close they were. A couple of shells hit our right wheel, destroying our hydraulic system. At this time we were about two miles from the carrier, which seemed to be by itself and was turning to the right.

Ship Seems Ablaze

"It was ridden to us and its whole side appeared to be ablaze as its anti-aircraft guns laid up a curtain through which we had to fly. We had the proper altitude and we released our torpedoes as close in as we could.

"I pulled up sharply and shot over the carrier's bow at only a couple of hundred feet. I didn't see anybody on the ship. No planes were on the deck.

"When I got across the deck, I shot straight up more than 1,000 feet. The Zeros kept after me and made several quartering attacks.

"All this time our own guns were pounding away at the Zeros. Our tailgunner, Technical Sergeant Reginard S. White, got two and maybe three Zeros during this attack.

"That took most of them off us, but one hung around for what seemed an eternity. Finally we lost him in the clouds although I didn't know it, and kept maneuvering until our navigator, Second Lieutenant Thomas N. Weeks, asked me, 'What are you dodging, captain?'

"Going back we took a sunline and a bearing on smoke from ships we could still see from a hundred miles away. That gave us our course and we got home."

Because his landing gear wouldn't work, Collins sent his crew to the back of the ship to hold the tail down and made a precarious landing, finally nosing over gently as the plane was about to run off the runway into the ocean.

Prays a Little

Lieutenant Muri said he uncorked his whole bag of tricks as he dodged and maneuvered—"and prayed a little"—in trying to evade the machine gun fire from the Japanese fighter planes and anti-aircraft guns.

YOUR HEALTH

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D

Infections of Teeth

Yesterday I described certain conditions of the teeth as they affect the general bodily health. Today I wish to discuss the subject of infection of the teeth.

Infections of the teeth and surrounding structures may be of two kinds—surface and hidden. Surface infections are caries or decay of the teeth, pyorrhea and other forms of irritation and infection of the gums; the hidden infections are abscesses at the apex of a tooth coming from an infection from crowns, fillings and possibly pulpless teeth.

Dental caries, pyorrhea and gingivitis seldom cause focal infection, but they do seem to be an indication of a change in nutrition or lowered resistance to infection, or both. The cause of decay of the teeth is a curiously complicated one and the state of our knowledge is very mixed. For instance, from a book called Dental Caries published by the American Dental Association and written by 165 different dentists, the following contradictory statements are excerpted:

Diet—Opinion A: "There is no evidence that caries is produced by malnutrition or may be prevented by adequate diets." Opinion B: "Dental caries arises from metabolic disturbances which can be avoided or corrected through the use of diets high in all recognized nutritional essentials."

The Effect of Civilization—Opinion A: "The causes of all caries reside in refinements of civilization and resulting changes of diet." Opinion B: "There is no basis for the view, frequently held, that freedom from caries in a primitive people is due to a superiority of natural as compared with civilized diets."

Sugar and Starches in Diet—Opinion A: "Sugar or starch has not been observed to favor caries." Opinion B: "Active caries was induced in children by increasing the sugar intake."

Vitamins—Opinion A: "Caries arises independently of the amount of vitamin C in the diet." Opinion B: "The dietary factors of caries are vitamins D and A and mineral salts."

With such a contradictory set of opinions, common sense has to come to the rescue. Undoubtedly the soil and weakness of the tooth is important but the major role is accomplished by infection with the acidophilus bacillus. This is an acid-forming organism which grows in sugar and starches. Undoubtedly a properly balanced diet is important during the period of childhood and adolescence when teeth are being formed. We may assume that in a tooth which didn't get a good start and therefore doesn't have very good dentin or enamel, if food remnants accumulate the acidolphilus germ begins to grow on these and caries results. To all intents and purposes therefore, it is a local disease.

The hidden infections can now be detected by the X-ray. It is possible that through the operation of the processes of focal infection they cause damage in a number of structures such as the joints and the nerves (neutris, neutralgia), the heart muscle, the kidneys, etc.

Pitfalls of Love

By ADELE GARRISON

Lillian Underwood Hears Ronald's Loving Message, But Is Assailed by Fears for Her Husband's Safety.

IF MY WORDS had held an electric charge of high voltage they could not have galvanized Ronald more effectively. With a swift movement his firm young hands grasped my arms so tightly that I almost cried out.

"Please say that again!" he said hoarsely, but his glowing eyes showed he had grasped the significance of what I had said.

"Surely I'll repeat it," I told him, smiling. "But won't you please sit down?"

"I'm afraid I hurt you," he said. "I didn't realize I was gripping so hard."

"Indeed you didn't hurt me," I prevaricated quickly and warmly, for his sensibilities were already so frayed that I wished no part in bruising them more.

These salving words had their effect. His face lost its flush and I spun me into my chair.

"Now I'll explain," I said, "and I trust you never again will doubt your future mother-in-law's feeling for you."

His jaw actually dropped. I would not have believed it possible for this Yale man if I had not seen it. Then he stammered:

"My future mother-in-law! Does she—is she?"

I smiled reassuringly:

"She is, and she does," I said. "She fully approves of a formal betrothal between you and Marion. Indeed, in her present state of mind, I do not know but she might be willing to give up her dream of having Marion finish college, and consent to your marriage at any time that your parents may approve."

In his eyes there was the light with which any lover would greet such news. Then it faded, as his loyalty and sense of duty came to the front, and he spoke quietly.

"But we must not accept that sacrifice," he said. "Marion and I must both finish college—when we find her."

His voice broke, and for a few seconds he could not go on.

"Will you please take that message back to Mrs. Underwood," he asked, "and tell her how much I revere and love her?"

"That will be the most welcome message she could receive," I said. "I will take it to her now, and I probably shall be gone for some time. Bette try a most needed three R's—relax, read and rest."

"I'll do all three," he answered, and I left him looking at the leaping fire with relieved eyes.

I found her staring out of the window, and she did not hear me come in. I spoke her name softly, and when she turned and I saw the unconventional look in her eyes, I knew that her thoughts had ranged far afield from Ronald.

But I gave her his cordial message at once.

"That's very sweet of him," she said, almost mechanically. Then she put out her hands to me with a pitiful, groping gesture.

"Yes, I cannot keep him, Madge," she said, and I knew she was not referring to Ronald—she seemed to have forgotten his existence already — but to her husband lying wounded in the next room.

"The surgeon told him he could sit up for a few minutes," she went on, "and that was enough. I could see it in Harry's face. Despite his promise to me, Harry is determined to go down into that maelstrom of crime—it is the only name for it—hunting for clues to Marion."

The Stars Say—

For Sunday June 14

Sunday's horoscope is a most impressive one, with forecast of all sorts of adventures and activities affecting life in all its forms and directions. There may be unusual singularly or surprising experiences, with contacts with strange persons or unconventional problems. These may arouse high nervous tension or excitements having unfavorable physical reactions. The intimate life may be involved.

Those whose birthday it is may prepare for a year of many diverse and unusual experiences and adventures, with promise of a fair success and good fortune if nervous tension or strain be not allowed to produce undermining physical reactions.

A child born on this day may have a many-sided nature and versatile abilities, which may incite high nervous excitement, calling for supervision and rest.

For Monday, June 15

Monday's astrological forecast is for an eventful, pleasant and intriguing state of affairs in which probably all commonplace and sordid objectives may be eclipsed by social, romantic and domestic matters or the pursuit of pleasure. Exalted ambitions of a philanthropic and benevolent nature may be fulfilled.

Those whose birthday it is may look for an exceptionally active, happy and productive year, in which the personal and intimate affairs of life and its advancement and enjoyment are likely to supersede all commonplace interests.

A child born on this day, while having worthy ambitions with warmth and generosity of feelings and emotion, may suffer from excesses and extravagant bids for the limelight.

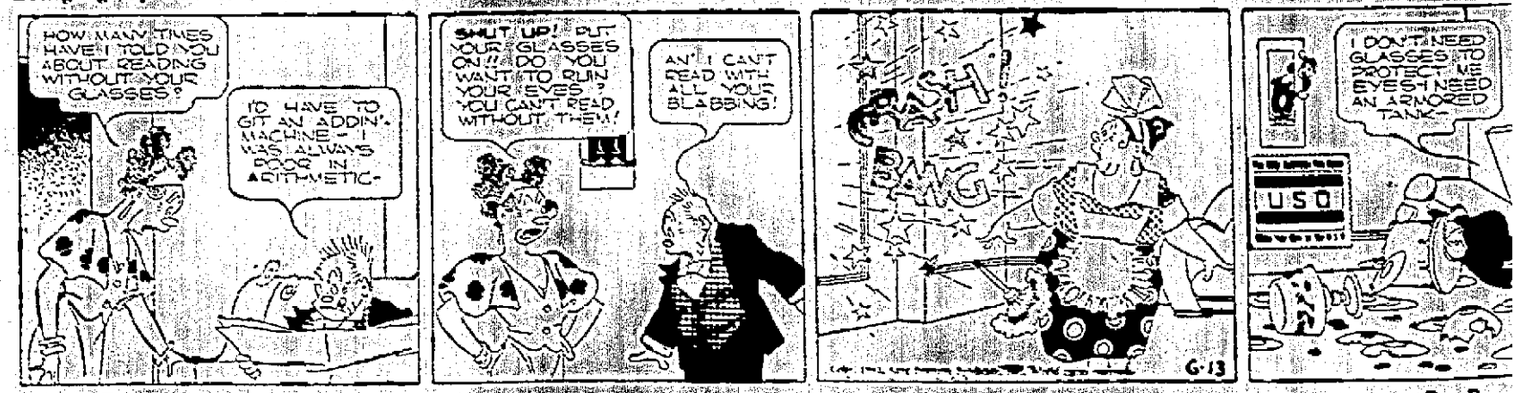
A GARDENER WHO CAN'T GROW RADISHES IS SIMPLY NO GARDENER AT ALL
WHY, DON'T TELL ME YOU CAN READ IN THE DARK!
NOT AT ALL! I REMEMBER I WROTE THE BOOK

Toots and Casper — By Jimm

TOOTS, CAN YOU FORGIVE ME FOR DOUBTING YOU AGAIN? HERE'S SOMETHING I THOUGHT YOU MIGHT LIKE!
OH, CASPER! IT'S GORGEOUS!
FOR A BRACELET LIKE THIS, I'D FORGIVE ANYTHING!
TOOTS, YOU'RE ONE IN A MILLION! ANY OTHER GIRL WOULDN'T STAND FOR SUCH JEALOUSY IN HER HUSBAND!
BUT, I'M GOING TO TURN OVER A NEW LEAF!
JEALOUSY IS OUT WITH ME FROM NOW ON! I'LL NEVER DOUBT YOU AGAIN!

Bringing Up Father — By George



HOW MANY TIMES HAVEN'T I TOLD YOU ABOUT READING WITHOUT YOUR GLASSES?
I'D HAVE TO GIT AN ADDIN' MACHINE—I WAS ALWAYS POOR IN ARITHMETIC—
SHUT UP! PUT YOUR GLASSES ON!! DO YOU WANT TO RUIN YOUR EYES? YOU CAN'T READ WITHOUT THEM!
AN' I CAN'T READ WITH ALL YOUS BLABBING!
I DON'T NEED GLASSES TO PROTECT ME EYES! I NEED AN ARMORED TANK—

Annie Rooney — By Bran

HURRY UP QUICK, HANNA, BEFORE THE RAIN STOPS—I JUST LOVE TO WALK IN THE RAIN, DON'T YOU?
I MEAN IN THE SUMMER RAIN
WELL, WALKING IS NOT MY HOBBY—BUT I LIKE TO WATCH THE SUMMER RAINDROPS FALLING LIKE A SHOWER OF DIAMONDS ON ALL THE THIRSTY TREES AND FLOWERS
GLORYOSKY! WILL YOU LOOK AT THE SUNBEAMS DANCING AN' SMELL THE FLOWERS? GEE, THEY'RE GRAND! EVERY TIME I TAKE A BREATH I THINK I'VE SWALLOWED A BIG BOTTLE OF PERFUME
HA, HA!—YOU MEA BOTTLE—EVERY T SWALLOW A PINT— A QU

MUSIC BY J.T. MELTON, GASTONIA, N.C.

BUT JEN, THIS IS REALLY A GOOD STUNT, ONE OF THE BOYS DOWN AT THE OFFICE SHOWED ME HOW TO DO IT

OH, ALEX, DON'T BOTHER ME

I WILL TRANSFER THIS GLASS OF WATER FROM MY RIGHT HAND TO MY LEFT, WITHOUT BRINGING MY HANDS TOGETHER..... LOOKS IMPOSSIBLE, EH?

HA HA, THAT'S WHAT THEY ALL SAY.... WATCH ME CLOSELY, MADAM.... OBSERVE THAT I PLACE THE GLASS ON THE TABLE WITH MY RIGHT HAND..

PIFFLE!

-AND NOW, I PICK IT UP WITH MY LEFT.. THUS MAKING THE TRANSFER WITHOUT BRINGING THE HANDS TOGETHER.... CLEVER, EH?

ALEX!

SO SORRY.. AN ACCIDENT, I ASSURE YOU

WELL, THIS IS NO ACCIDENT!

YOU SEE, I CAN'T USE MY AUTOMOBILE ANY MORE, SO I BOUGHT A HORSE TO PULL ME AROUND

I'LL HOLD HIM FOR YOU, MR. DUFFY.

HEY SPECK! LOOK!!

SURE, I CAN TAKE HIM ANYWHERE THERE'S GRASS FOR HIM TO EAT

I STILL SAY AUTOMOBILES ARE BETTER.. YOU DON'T HAVE TO STAND OUT IN THE HOT SUN HOLDING THEM

WE CAN TAKE HIM DOWN THE ROAD AND SIT IN THE SHADE UNDER A TREE WHILE HE EATS

OH BOY! THIS IS SWELL... HO-HUM!
